1. About 40 single-motor and dual-motor planes, together with a few jet planes, were observed in Babi Dol in the summer of 1953.
2. Expansion work was in progress on Leba Airfield in 1951. Polish jet planes were observed on the field in 1953.
3. Expansion work was in progress on the Poznan airfield in 1951-1952. Polish planes landed on the field in 1953. Up to September 1953, no jet planes were observed on the field.
4. Expansion work on the Wrzeszcz field was in progress from March 1952 to the beginning of 1953. In the summer (presumably 1953), about 20 single-motor and 30 dual-motor airplanes were observed on the field. In the beginning of 1953, the Polish Air Force took over the barracks located near the airfield on ulica Miedzialkowskiego. They had been previously used by the 4th WOP brigade.
